

Fancy Fruit

ROCKY FORD MELONS
ICE COLD WATERMELONS
SEEDLESS GRAPES
NIAGARA, DELAWARE, CONCORD, WILD GRAPES
DELICIOUS ORANGES
LARGE BAKED APPLES
TABLE PEARS
FANCY PEACHES
FANCY VARIETY PLUMS
Everything in Vegetables, Poultry and Fresh Meat.

SOMERS

We are ready for the opening of school with a full supply of all the required in the city and town schools and can supply your needs at short notice.

BOOKS

To those who wish to secure second hand copies we wish to call your attention to the extra fine lot of Fry's Geographies,
Mother Tongues,
Histories, Readers, Etc.

Granston & Co.

158 Main St., Norwich, Conn.

FALL MILLINERY

A fine assortment of latest styles in hats. Come in and see them.
MRS. C. S. STANTON,
52 Shetucket St.

A Handsome New Line of Caps

FOR THE BEACH OR AUTO WEAR

The Toggery Shop

221 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

SCHOOL DAYS

Start the Boys and Girls right by giving them a nice Fountain Pen. We have them from $1.00 to $10.00 each. Our $1.00 Pen is a wonder.

The Plant-Cadden Co.

Jewelry and Silvermiths
Established 1872.

PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING

BICYCLES

Selling at 1-3 off

Extra Bargains in guaranteed wheels.

MOTORCYCLES

EXCELSIOR, INDIAN AND POPE

Second-hand Bargains

1911 Pierce 4 h. p. Belt Drive Magneto

1909 Indian 4 h. p. Chain Drive Magneto

Prices Low. Terms Reasonable.

C. V. PENDLETON,

10 Broadway

DR. C. C. GILDERSLEEVE

Physician and Surgeon

OFFICE

McGrory Bldg., 227 Main St., Suite 1-3

Hours—9-5 a. m. 1-3-5 and 7-8 p. m.

Telephone 1150

Residence 29 Lincoln Ave. Tel. 1102

We Are As Near To You

as your phone. Call 888 and let us know your wants in the food and planting line. The pleasure shall be ours to please you. Any information desired will be cheerfully given, and visitors to Lewis' warehouse.

GEDULIG'S GREENHOUSES.

77 Cedar Street.

Our

Headache Wafers

are guaranteed to contain no Opium,

Morphine or Bromide. They are prompt and certain in their action and do not disarrange the stomach. They are especially efficient for all forms of Nervous Neuralgia and Sick Headache.

PRICE 25c PER BOX.

Sent by mail on receipt of price.

LEROU, The Progressive

Druggist,

289 Main Street,

Opposite Chelsea Bank.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Tuesday, Sept. 3, 1912.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

Granges are planning harvest festivals.

The fall term of St. Patrick's school opens Thursday.

Cooler weather is starting hunters to take out licenses.

There will be a rush today to purchase school supplies.

The best moonlight nights in September will be from the 26th to the 30th.

On chestnut trees are loaded with burrs

and there is every indication of a bumper yield.

The Baptist state evangelist, Rev. C. K.

Flanders, has been preaching in Wilmington.

Dr. Higgins has removed his office to his residence, 21 Fairmount street.

Same house.

One of the successful peach growers of eastern Connecticut this season is William Pease of Ashford.

Norwich girls will be in the entering class at Willimantic state normal for the year which opens Wednesday.

In the shore towns, the boats are putting out for sea and blackfishing, as the season for lobster fishing is about over.

According to some authorities dog days end today, the 15th, but the date

generally accepted is September 9,

Thursday.

When the rain held up Monday afternoon the cars were crowded with pleasure seekers who came to town to attend the theaters.

Gen. E. S. Greeley's old regiment, the Tenth C. V., is to hold its forty-first annual reunion at Savin Rock,

West Haven, on Thursday.

Mumford's Cove oysters served in all of the city and served in all

Auditorium and other public places.

William Mansfield, formerly at M.

F. Plant's poultry yards at Eastern

Point, is now poultryman at the model poultry farm of Judge Peaseley, in Chelsea.

More than 100 delegates and over a score of preachers attended the state A. M. E. Zion convention at

New Britain which closed Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. F. Gagnier of Norwich has returned after several days' stay at the summer home of William E. Bullock of Norwich at the Red cottage at Pleasure beach.

This is the last month of the year when the interesting planet Jupiter may still be well studied. It is very low in the south, just above the bright star Arcturus.

Allyn L. Brown has purchased from

Mrs. Anna Meach Walker the open lot on Williams avenue adjoining the property of Frederic W. Cary, on which he will erect a residence.

Mrs. Martha Lounsbury, delegate of the W. R. C. of Connecticut, left Norwich Monday for the national convention in California. She expects to be away until some time in October.

Eastern Connecticut towns will be represented at Fall River (Sept. 10-11 day), when the convention of L. Union

St. Jean Baptiste opens with solemn high mass at St. Anne's church at 3 o'clock.

It will be two or three months before all will be in readiness for the removal from Fall River to the old armory at Westbury of the office of the trolley lines which now center in the Rhode Island town.

The Broadway Store, opposite the Y. M. C. A., is offering a great novelty free to every child purchaser, of 25 cents or more. This week only.—adv.

The Connecticut Daughters of the American Revolution have achieved another triumph in the publication of the sixth edition of their "Little Green Book." The immigrant's guide has been issued in Yiddish.

M. P. Zappe of Stonington, a student at the Connecticut agricultural college at Storrs, has been engaged as entomologist with the Edison company and will be employed at their laboratories in Orange, N. J.

The first session in line in the New

London Holy Name parade will be the New London society, followed by

St. Mary's society of Norwich, which is the oldest in the county. The laster society will have its own band.

Petitions are being circulated among summer residents of Pine Grove, Niagara, Blackhall and Saybrook, for an early train next season from Saybrook to arrive at New London about 7.30

a. m.

Trolley passengers find the compressed air pump an object of special interest now, since the river is so high that an immense volume of water is forced through the waste pipe far out into the river. The shaft there is 200 feet deep.

Addresses will be delivered by about seventeen men prominent in various branches of the cotton manufacturing industry at the semi-annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers at Eastern Point

September 3-11.

The last biennial report of the fisheries commission notes those from Norwich licensed to take lobsters,

William A. Wells, George B. Prentiss,

William B. Young, J. G. E. Dygert

and J. O. Winchester, E. B. Worthington and J. H. Allen, M. D.

When the state graduate nurses meet at the Gaylord farm, Wallingford, on Wednesday, action will be taken on the proposal to establish a cottage, or chack, on the sanitarium grounds for the use of nurses who may become afflicted with tuberculosis.

A recent graduate of the Norwich

State hospital, Miss Marie Pendleton, who has been spending her vacation at her home on Wauwecus Hill, has left for New York to take a post-graduate course in the New York Polytechnic medical school and hospital.

The business failures for a year in Connecticut entailed liabilities of $2,826,125.15, for which there were

$10,646.71 of assets, is shown by the bankruptcy report of the United States district court for Connecticut for the year ending June 30, 1912.

Members of St. Mary's T. A. and B.

society attended a requiem high mass, celebrated by Rev. Hugh Treanor in St. Patrick's church Monday at eight o'clock, for the deceased members of the society. Many relatives of the deceased members assisted at the memorial service.

The current issue of The Veter mentions that Capt. George C. Smith of the United States army, who was in connection with the recent 175-mile auto tour of New London and Windham counties, made recently by the state engineer.

PERSONAL

John Coleman of Sherman street

spent Monday in Hartford.

J. Alonzo Peabody of Westerly was a visitor in town Monday.

John B. Galt of Pearl street spent

Labor day at Atlantic Beach.

William E. Bullock has returned to Norwich after occupying a cottage at Waterford.

Miss Edith Lane has returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George C.

Lane of Mystic.

Recent guests at the Palmer house,

Pleasure beach, were Mr. and Mrs. A.

B. Simpson of Norwich.

Miss Elizabeth B. Fitzpatrick has returned home after a two weeks' visit with relatives in Monmouth.

Mrs. Anne Day of the West Side,

Westerly, was in Norwich attending the funeral of Charles W. Tabbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Granby of Stonington visited Mrs. C. J. Storms

of Palmer avenue on Labor day.

Miss Kittie Fox of Norwich has been spending a few days with her son, Mrs. E. H. Fox of Willimantic.

Miss Edith Lamagwell will return to Norwich today (Tuesday) after spending the season at Pleasure beach.

Mrs. E. J. Geer of Norwich has arrived at Pleasure beach for a short stay and expects to return this week.

Wilbur Smith of New Haven called on his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs.